Policy

It is the policy of Bay-Arenac Behavioral Health Authority (BABHA) to prohibit physician self-referral, prevent the receipt of kickbacks and safeguard against related conflicts of interest, relative to state and federal health care programs.

Purpose

This policy and procedure is established/developed/created to ensure BABH complies with federal laws and regulations regarding physician self-referral and kickbacks involving federal and state healthcare programs. This policy and procedure does not apply to contracts that are not greater than $100,000, per 41 USC 8701-8707 (Anti-Kickback Act).

Education Applies to:

- All BABHA Staff
- Selected BABHA Staff, as follows:
- All Contracted Providers: Policy Only Policy and Procedure
- Selected Contracted Providers, as follows:

and including an interest in an entity that holds an ownership or investment interest in any entity providing the designated health service.

Kickback: Any money, fee commission, credit, gift, gratuity, thing of value, or compensation of any kind that is provided to a contractor to improperly obtain or reward favorable treatment in connection with any federal government contract.

Physicians: Per 42 USC 1395nn Physician Self-Referral Law, a doctor of medicine or osteopathy legally authorized to practice medicine and surgery by the State in which he performs such function or action; (other physicians not relevant to behavioral health, such as dentists are included; physician assistants and nurse practitioners are not identified in the Code).

Procedure

1) Conflict of Interest

- a) A present or former employee or contracted service provider of BABHA who is acting or has acted for or on behalf of BABHA, or is advising BABHA, and by virtue of that relationship has or had access to contractor bid or proposal or vendor selection information may not knowingly disclose contractor bid or proposal information or source selection information before the award of a contract involved federal or state healthcare funds.
- b) .
- c) Federal Consequences for Violations of Conflict of Interest Prohibitions
 - i. An employee or contracted service providers of BABHA who exchanges information for anything of value (as described in item 1)a) above) or to obtain or give a person a competitive advantage in the award of a BABHA procurement contract may be subject to:
 - 1. Criminal penalties in the form of fines, imprisonment for not more than five years or both;
 - 2. Civil penalties, including penalties of not more than $50,000 for each violation plus twice the amount of compensation that the individual received or offered for the prohibited conduct, or in the case of an organization, penalties of not more than $500,000 for each violation, plus twice the amount of compensation that the organization received or was offered for the prohibited conduct.

2) Physician Self-Referral

- a) With certain exceptions as articulated in the federal law, generally if a physician (or an immediate family member of such physician) has a financial relationship with an entity:
 - i. The physician may not make a referral to the entity for the furnishing of a designated health service for which payment otherwise may be made by federal health care funds; and
 - ii. The entity may not present or cause to be presented a claim or bill for federal health care funds for designated health services furnished pursuant to a referral.
- b) Federal Consequences of Violations of Physician Self-Referral Laws
 - i. Denial of payment;
 - ii. Refunding of any payments received in violation of the Physician Self-Referral Law;
 - iii. Civil monetary penalties of not more than $15,000 for each service improperly claimed;
 - iv. Civil monetary penalties of not more than $100,000 for each arrangement or scheme, such as cross-referrals, which the physician or entity knows or should know has a purpose of assuring referrals by the physician to a particular entity, which if the physician directly made referrals to the entity would be in violation of the self-referral law;
 - v. Civil monetary penalties of not more than $10,000 for each day for which reporting was required to have been made;
 - vi. (civil) False Claims Act liability; and
 - vii. Exclusion from participation in Medicare.

3) Kickbacks

- a) In accordance with federal law, a BABHA employee or contracted service provider involved with a federal government contract may not:
