Policy

It is the policy of Bay-Arenac Behavioral Health Authority (BABHA) that a recipient utilizing residential services is entitled to receive, possess, and use all personal property, including clothing, except for those items prohibited including weapons, drugs, drug paraphernalia, alcoholic beverages, and any items which violate federal, state, or local laws. Recipients shall be afforded maximum control over and choice in the utilization of their personal funds. Any exclusions of personal property shall be written and posted in each residential unit. Searches for excluded items should be conducted in accordance with BABHA’s Policy and Procedure, C03-S03-T0 – 7 Personal Search. Those searches conducted on an emergency basis shall be documented using a Procedures Incident Report. A search procedure shall be justified as part of the team meeting process and documented in the recipient’s search and seizure record.

Furthermore, staff shall not through fraud, deceit, misrepresentation, coercion, or unjust enrichment obtain or use a recipient’s property or funds for the benefit of anyone other than the recipient. Theft of a recipient’s property or funds shall be reported to law enforcement. Provider Agencies shall reimburse a recipient for any discrepancies in recipient funds due to theft or error.

Purpose

This policy and procedure is established to ensure the rights of BABHA recipients in residential services to receive, possess, and use personal property and funds.

Procedure

A recipient utilizing residential services or utilizing community living supports and staff are safeguarding the recipient’s personal property or funds is entitled to receive, possess, and use all funds personal property, including clothing, except for those items prohibited (weapons, drugs, drug paraphernalia, alcoholic beverages, and any items which violate federal, state, or local laws). Any exclusions of personal property shall be written and posted in each residential unit. Searches for excluded items should be conducted in accordance with BABHA’s Policy and Procedure, C03-S03-T09 - Personal Search. Those searches conducted on an emergency basis shall be documented using an Incident Report. A search procedure shall be justified as part of the team meeting process and documented in the recipient’s search and seizure record.

Items of personal property, which are not subject to an exclusion of limitation, shall be permitted to remain with the resident. BABHA operated and contracted residential providers shall provide a reasonable amount of storage space to each resident for his/her clothing and other personal property. Items such as bank accounts, stocks, bonds, insurance policies, and storage receipts shall receive immediate action so as to properly release the residential provider and BABHA from liability and provide appropriate protection of a residential consumer’s assets.

Additional limitations on the right to receive, possess, and use personal property and funds may be imposed by the person in charge of the recipient’s plan of service if such limitations are the minimum essential to: (1) prevent theft, loss or destruction of personal property and funds, unless a waiver is signed by the resident; (b) prevent the recipient from physically harming self or others. Any such limitation must be preceded by documentation of the circumstances, which indicate that the limitation is the minimal essential step to achieve one of the above stated allowable objectives. Such limitations are to be documented in the clinical record along with the date the limitation will expire. Any limitation imposed shall be removed when the circumstances which justified the limitation ceases to exist. A receipt shall be given to the recipient and his/her designee for any of his/her personal property that is taken into the possession of the provider. A recipient shall have the opportunity to inspect his/her property at reasonable times as set forth by the Individual Plan of Service (IPOS). A recipient may challenge any limitation on personal property by filing a complaint with the Recipient Rights Officer who will conduct an investigation into the complaint and report the results to the Chief Executive Officer (CEO), or his/her designee, or may request mediation in accordance with the MMHC, Chapter 7.

Any personal property in the possession of the provider at the time the resident to whom it belongs is discharged from the residential setting or no the staff no longer safeguard the personal property/funds shall be returned to the recipient.

A provider, in conjunction with the Interdisciplinary Treatment Team, may require that all money which is on a person of a recipient, which comes to a resident, or which the residential provider receives in place of the resident under a benefit arrangement or otherwise be turned over to the residential provider for safekeeping. Such monetary funds shall be accurately accounted for in the name of the recipient and recorded on an ongoing basis in the records of the resident. Funds accounted for in the name of a residential recipient may be deposited with a financial institution. Any earnings attributable to money in an account of a resident shall be credited to that account. Upon request, funds accounted for in the name of a recipient shall be turned over to a legal guardian of the recipient if the guardian has such legal authority.

A recipient may challenge any limitation on use of funds by filing a complaint with the Recipient Rights Officer, who will conduct an investigation into the complaint and report the results to the CEO, or his/her designee, in accordance with BABHA Policy, C03-S05-T02 - Investigative Report and Summary. Any funds, in the possession of the residential provider at the time the resident to whom it belongs is discharged from the residential setting, shall be returned to the resident.

In the event of the death of a recipient, every effort shall be made by the provider to divest itself of the resident's personal effects and monies if the effects and monies consist of only clothing and up to $100 cash. Divestiture shall be made to the spouse, child, or parent of the decedent providing the spouse, child, or parent furnishes identification and an affidavit of such relationship and that an estate of the decedent is not pending. The provider shall send a list of personal effects or monies being held by the provider to the nearest living relative by registered mail and to probate court and shall call attention to statutes that provide for disposition. If the nearest relative cannot be contacted, the residential provider shall send, by registered mail, to the person or entity that paid the funeral expenses, a list of articles being held by the provider and a statement which calls attention to statutes providing for disposition. If there are questions as to rival claims to personal effects or monies, property may be held by the provider or BABHA until the claims are determined in probate court.

If there are no claims to personal effects or monies of a recipient who has died, the properties or monies shall be considered to be unclaimed. If such properties or monies remain held for two years, the property or money shall be disposed of pursuant to Act No. 63 of the Public Acts of
