- 3) Federal law requires that any employee, contractor or agent shall be entitled to all relief necessary to make that employee, contractor or agent whole, if that employee, contractor or agent is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or in any other manner discriminated against in the terms and conditions of employment because of lawful acts done by the employee, contractor, agent or associated others in furtherance of an action under the Federal False Claims Act.
- 4) Consequences of Violations
  - a) Under state law, remedies for employees include reinstatement, payment of back wages, full reinstatement of fringe benefits and seniority rights, actual damages or any combination of those remedies.
  - b) Under federal law, relief for employees may include reinstatement with the same seniority status that employee, contractor, or agent would have had but for the discrimination, two times the amount of back pay, interest on the back pay and compensation for any special damages sustained as a result of the discrimination.
  - c) Any BABHA employee who engages in retaliation against a good faith reporter may be subject to disciplinary action up to and including possible discharge (based upon the severity of the incident(s)), in accordance with BABHA personnel policies and procedures.
  - d) A contracted service provider who engages in retaliation against a good faith reporter may be subject to adverse contract action up to and including contract termination, in accordance with BABHA contract administration policies and procedures.
  - e) Under state law, a person who violates the Whistleblower protection law may be subject to civil fine of not more than $500.
  - f) An employee may be subject to disciplinary action in accordance with BABHA personnel policies if BABHA concludes that the employee knew that the reporting of wrongdoing was fabricated, not based on true facts, or made in bad faith, or that the report was distorted, exaggerated, or minimized to either injure someone else or to protect him/herself or others.
  - g) A contracted service provider who knew that the reporting of wrongdoing was fabricated, not based on true facts, or made in bad faith, or that the report was distorted, exaggerated, or minimized to either injure someone else or to protect him/herself or others may be
